BY JOHN LEIGHTON, F. S. A.

Square Crown. $1. Attractively bound in Cloth Extra. Gift top. 40.

* To the law-abiding and English-speaking races, the great drama of the Commune must be intensely interesting—a drama not without its moral—and one that the French people believe, in their optimism, has been played on their soil for the benefit of the human race. Be it so!

and may the scenes enacted upon the theater of Paris prove of benefit to all, for the Commune has been terrible enough, and the whole most costly. The illustrations in the work include views of all prominent localities, Palaces and Monuments, Portraits of eminent Communists, Generals and Statesmen; Sketches on the Spot, of contemporaneous events, &c., &c., rendering it of great interest to the general reader, as well as of permanent historical value.

NOV. 12. VOL. II. OF THE SECOND ST. 12mo. $1.25.

Price, .25.

This is a story of political literature and social life in Paris during the Second Empire. It describes the interloping party intrigues and immoral life of the court of Louis Philippe, and shows how the empire was distinguished; it describes with equal precision the purposes and tactics of the Opposition, and blends with these a charming personal story. The pictures of Parisian society are thoroughly life-like, and such as only an intimate knowledge of it would enable any writer to depict.
